

I request that the petition filed by Bellsouth not be granted. As a customer of an independent ISP I value the service I receive and I think competition in the industry is important.